On behalf of the Training, Research and Education for Driving Safety (TREDS) program at the University of California San Diego, thank you for helping to promote safety for older drivers and other road users.

This “California Referral Guide for Older Road Users” contains resources to assist older adults and their families with questions and concerns related to safe driving. Topics covered include driving assessment, refresher courses, adaptive equipment for cars, and transportation alternatives. Many older adults will outlive their driving ability by 7–10 years; help is available to address the difficult topic of driving retirement and continued mobility.

We welcome your feedback and suggestions for additional resources to include in future editions of this Guide.

Working together, we can make California roads safer for everyone.

Sincerely,

The TREDS Team

Funding for this program was provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Updates and expands upon the Physician's Guide to Assessing and Counseling Older Drivers. Assists clinicians to better identify older drivers at risk for crashes, help enhance driving safety, and ease transition to driving retirement if and when it becomes necessary.

PHYSICIAN REPORTING

Reporting someone to the DMV does not necessarily mean they will lose their driving privilege. The goal is to preserve driving for as long as it is safe. The DMV can monitor at-risk drivers and impose licensing restrictions to prolong driving.

Physicians are required to report conditions that cause lapses of consciousness, seizures, or diseases related to Alzheimer's (and other dementia). Disorders characterized by lapses of consciousness refer to conditions that involve: marked reduction of alertness or responsiveness to external stimuli; inability to perform one or more activities of daily living; and impaired sensory motor functions used to operate a motor car.

Physicians are required to report a patient to the California Department of Public Health using the following form:

Confidentiality and Morbidity Report (CMR 110c): this form should be faxed to the California Department of Public Health who will notify DMV. For faster action, clinicians can also send the report directly to DMV. (Appendix 2; page 18)

cdph.ca.gov/CDPH%20Document%20Library/ControlledForms/cdph110c.pdf

Physicians can also report on the:

Request for Driver Reexamination (DMV Form DS699): concerned physicians can complete this form to request that the DMV reevaluate a person's ability to drive safely. (Appendix 1; page 17)

dmv.ca.gov/portal/dmv/detail/forms/ds/ds699

Physicians can also report directly on office letterhead.

Once a driver is referred for re-examination, the DMV may request a driver provide the Driver Medical Evaluation Form (DMV Form DS326). The physician will be asked to complete information about the patient's health status with respect to vision, current treatment, functional impairments, and other health matters. (Appendix 3; page 19)

6. Getting By Without Driving

Getting By Without Driving

Who doesn't drive?

If you live long enough, you will eventually have to stop driving. The average male will have seven years without the ability to drive, and the average female ten years! Many people choose to stop driving because of the hassle and expense of auto insurance, car maintenance, and gasoline. Other people stop driving because they feel unsafe on the road. And some people have never learned to drive!

If you don't drive, you're in good company. Although most Americans use their cars to get around, many people get by just fine without one. In this sheet, we suggest ways to get by without driving.

Where can you find a ride?

Here are some ways to get a ride. See which ones work best for you.

- Ask for a friend or relative for a ride. Offer to pay for the gasoline.
- Take public transportation. Can a train, subway, or bus take you where you need to go? Call your regional transit authority and ask for directions.
- Take a taxi cab. To cut down costs, try sharing a cab with friends or find out if your community offers discounted fares for seniors.
- Ride a senior transit shuttle. Call your community center or local Area Agency on Aging to see if your neighborhood has a shuttle service.
- Ask about volunteer drivers. Call your community center, church, synagogue, temple, or mosque to see if they have a volunteer driver program.
- Ride a Medi-car. If you need a ride to your doctor's office, call your local Area Agency on Aging to see if a Medi-car can get you there.

If you can't go out to get something, have it come to you.

Many stores can deliver their products straight to your door.

- Have your groceries delivered. Many stores deliver for free or for a low fee. You can even call your family and friends, or volunteers from your local community center, church, synagogue, temple, or mosque to see if someone can pick up your groceries
- Order your medicines by mail. Not only is this more convenient—it's often less expensive, too.

Order only from pharmacies that you know and trust. Some pharmacists will also deliver medications to the home.

- Have your meals delivered to you. Many restaurants will deliver meals for free or for a low fee. Also, you may be eligible for Meals-on-Wheels, a program that delivers hot meals at low cost. Call your local Area Agency on Aging for more information about Meals-on-Wheels.
- Shop from catalogs. You can buy almost anything you need from catalogs: clothing, pet food, toiletries, gifts, and more! Many catalogs are now online, with the most recent selections available from Internet websites.

7. “Getting There” Worksheet

FOR THE FAMILY

“GETTING THERE” WORKSHEET

Prior to talking to an older driver about limiting or stopping driving, thought should be given to ways the driver can remain engaged in life’s activities. No single method of transportation is likely to meet all needs. This worksheet is designed to help you identify available transportation alternatives in your area.

FAMILY/FRIENDS

Family and friends are the top alternative to driving for older adults. This mode of transportation may seem more familiar, comfortable and social to many older adults. That said, there may be conflicting feelings of burdening or inconveniencing others. Some older adults may want to do something in exchange for the ride.

Questions to Ask

1. Are people available to provide rides at the times required?
2. To what extent are family or friends able or willing to provide rides.
3. Do people provide the rides willingly or do they resent having to adjust their schedules?
4. Is there something the older adult can “trade” for a ride (making dinner, taking the driver to lunch, paying for gas)?

Notes:

LOCAL PROGRAMS THAT OFFER RIDES

These are locally developed programs, often sponsored by faith-based or non-profit organizations, which provide rides for older adults. They may charge nominal fees or accept donations and often operate with the help of volunteer drivers.

Questions to Ask

1. What programs are available in my area?
2. Is there a cost?
3. What hours and days of the week does the service run?
4. What are the routes or areas of service?
5. Are there limits to the number of rides in a given time period?
6. Is there any assistance available to people with physical or other health constraints?
7. Is there assistance for people with bags, etc.?
8. Is pre-registration with the service required?
9. Are wheelchair lifts available?

Notes:

DEMAND-RESPONSIVE SERVICES OR PARATRANSIT

Often referred to as the Dial-a-Ride or Elderly and Disabled Transportation Service, these programs are almost always subsidized by government funds and provide door-to-door service and offer rides by appointment. Fees or donations are common. Many use vans and offer accessible services for riders with special needs.

Questions to Ask

1. Is there a minimum age or other physical or cognitive criteria for using the service?
2. How much does it cost?
3. Can an account be set up in advance with the service?
4. How far in advance do reservations need to be made?

“GETTING THERE” WORKSHEET (CONT.)

PRIVATE PROGRAM SERVICES

Services such as adult day centers, housing programs, stores, malls, or other businesses may offer transportation for program participants or customers.

Questions to Ask

1. What ride destinations are provided?
2. Is there a cost?
3. What hours does the service run?
4. What are the routes?
5. Is there any assistance available to people with physical or other health constraints?
6. Is there assistance for people with bags, etc.?
7. Is pre-registration with the service required?
8. Are wheelchair lifts available?

Notes:

TAXI/CAR SERVICE

These private services offer flexible scheduling and charge a fee. Many older adults may perceive these services as “expensive” or “a luxury” but they can cost much less than owning and maintaining a car. Some taxi/car services may be willing to set up accounts that allow other family members to pay for services.

Questions to Ask

1. How much does it cost?
2. How is the cost calculated?
3. How long in advance should I call for a ride?
4. Do you offer any guarantee on response time?
5. Are there geographic limits to where you provide service?

6. Can an account be set up in advance with the service?
7. How are tips handled with an account system?
8. Will drivers provide assistance with bags, packages, etc.?
9. Can the service accommodate wheelchairs?

Notes:

MASS TRANSIT

Public transportation, where available, can be an affordable option for some older adults.

Questions to Ask

1. How much does it cost?
2. Are there discounts for older/disabled people?
3. Can an account be set up in advance with the service? Or are there monthly passes?
4. What hours does the service run?
5. What geographic area does the service cover?
6. Will drivers provide assistance with bags, packages, etc.?
7. Can companions accompany the person on the service?
8. Are wheelchair lifts available?
9. Does the older adult have cognitive or physical limitations that prevent him or her from using this mode of transportation?

Notes:

8. Transportation Cost Worksheet

FOR THE DRIVER

TRANSPORTATION COST WORKSHEET

Owning and operating a vehicle can be more expensive than you think! By writing down your actual expenses, you can get an idea of how much money could be available for alternative transportation if you were to stop driving.

To determine the annual expense to own and operate a car, list all the related expenses below. Don't forget to multiply by 12 for monthly expenses, or by 52 for weekly expenses. For less frequent expenses, such as tires, estimate the cost and divide by the number of years between expenses. Once you have the annual expense for owning and operating the vehicle, you can get a better idea of how much you are already spending on transportation.
